THE PAULUS INSTITUTE IS PLEASED TO ANNOUNCE

The Most Reverend Alexander K. Sample Archbishop of Portland in Oregon will be the celebrant of the pontifical Solemn Mass in the Traditional Roman Rite commemorating the 10th anniversary of the issue by Pope Benedict XVI of the Motu Proprio Summorum Pontificum to be held at the Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception.

WASHINGTON, DC, SATURDAY APRIL 28, 2018, AT 1 P.M.

His Excellency Archbishop Sample was appointed Bishop of Marquette by Pope Benedict XVI on December 13, 2005. He is the first member of the American hierarchy to be born in the 1960s—in Kalispell, a scenic town in rugged western Montana. He chose as his motto Contemplare Vultus Christi—To Look Upon Christ’s Face. On January 29, 2013, he was appointed by Pope Benedict XVI as Archbishop of the Archdiocese of Portland in Oregon.

His Excellency holds a licentiate in canon law from the Pontifical University of St. Thomas Aquinas in Rome (the Angelicum), as well as a Bachelor of Science degree and a Master of Science degree in Metallurgical Engineering from Michigan Technological University.

When Pope Benedict XVI issued Summorum Pontificum in 2007, then-Bishop Sample decided to learn on his own to celebrate the Traditional form of the Roman Rite. In 2012 he announced he would offer the Mass approximately once a month on Sundays in his cathedral church. He has also ordained transitional deacons for the Fraternal Society of Saint Peter in the Traditional form.

At the climax of the 2016 Summorum Pontificum pilgrimage to Rome, Archbishop Sample celebrated a pontifical Solemn Mass in the Traditional Form at the faldstool at the Altar of the Chair of St Peter at the Basilica of Saint Peter.
