COMPLAINTS

I am requesting a civil restraining order to protect against further intimidation or harassment by Mr. Michael Smalanskas, and the Vice President for Student Affairs at Providence College, where Mr. Smalanskas was a student prior to graduation. Since May 20, 2018, for approx. 3 months he has demonstrated an escalation of animosity toward me - which culminated in two in person incidents this weekend. These incidents convinced me that I needed to take this action for my protection. In both these incidents Mr. Smalanskas' lashing out at me has been by email, in meetings, and via social media. However, it appeared that as graduation approached he became emboldened enough to harass me in public. There were several witnesses to both incidents. Immediately after these incidents I reported them to Providence Public Safety and Providence Police. Providence College issued a no-contact directive, which only addresses on campus. Providence Police took a report and instructed me to come to Superior Court Monday morning. I waited one hour in the Commonwealth Room as Mr. Smalanskas exited the line for Commonwealth Court. I stopped approx 10 feet away from me and glared at me for 5-8 seconds. He was visibly angry and stared at me causing me to feel surprised, uncomfortable, and at what he must do next.

he has, on multiple occasions, used his physical stance, glaring eye contact, and verbal confrontations to impose fear. I am also afraid of Mr. Smalanskas's parents, especially his father who has access to weapons and information about my whereabouts. On a prior occasion his father yelled at me and I was afraid enough to ask him to leave my office.

I have worked in student affairs for over 30 years and at four institutions. I have had several difficult interactions w/ students over the years, but never have I felt so intimidated, harassed, threatened, and vulnerable as I did on Saturday. I ^{continue to} fear for my physical safety at my place of employment, at my home, and in public.
